

What is CAMPO?

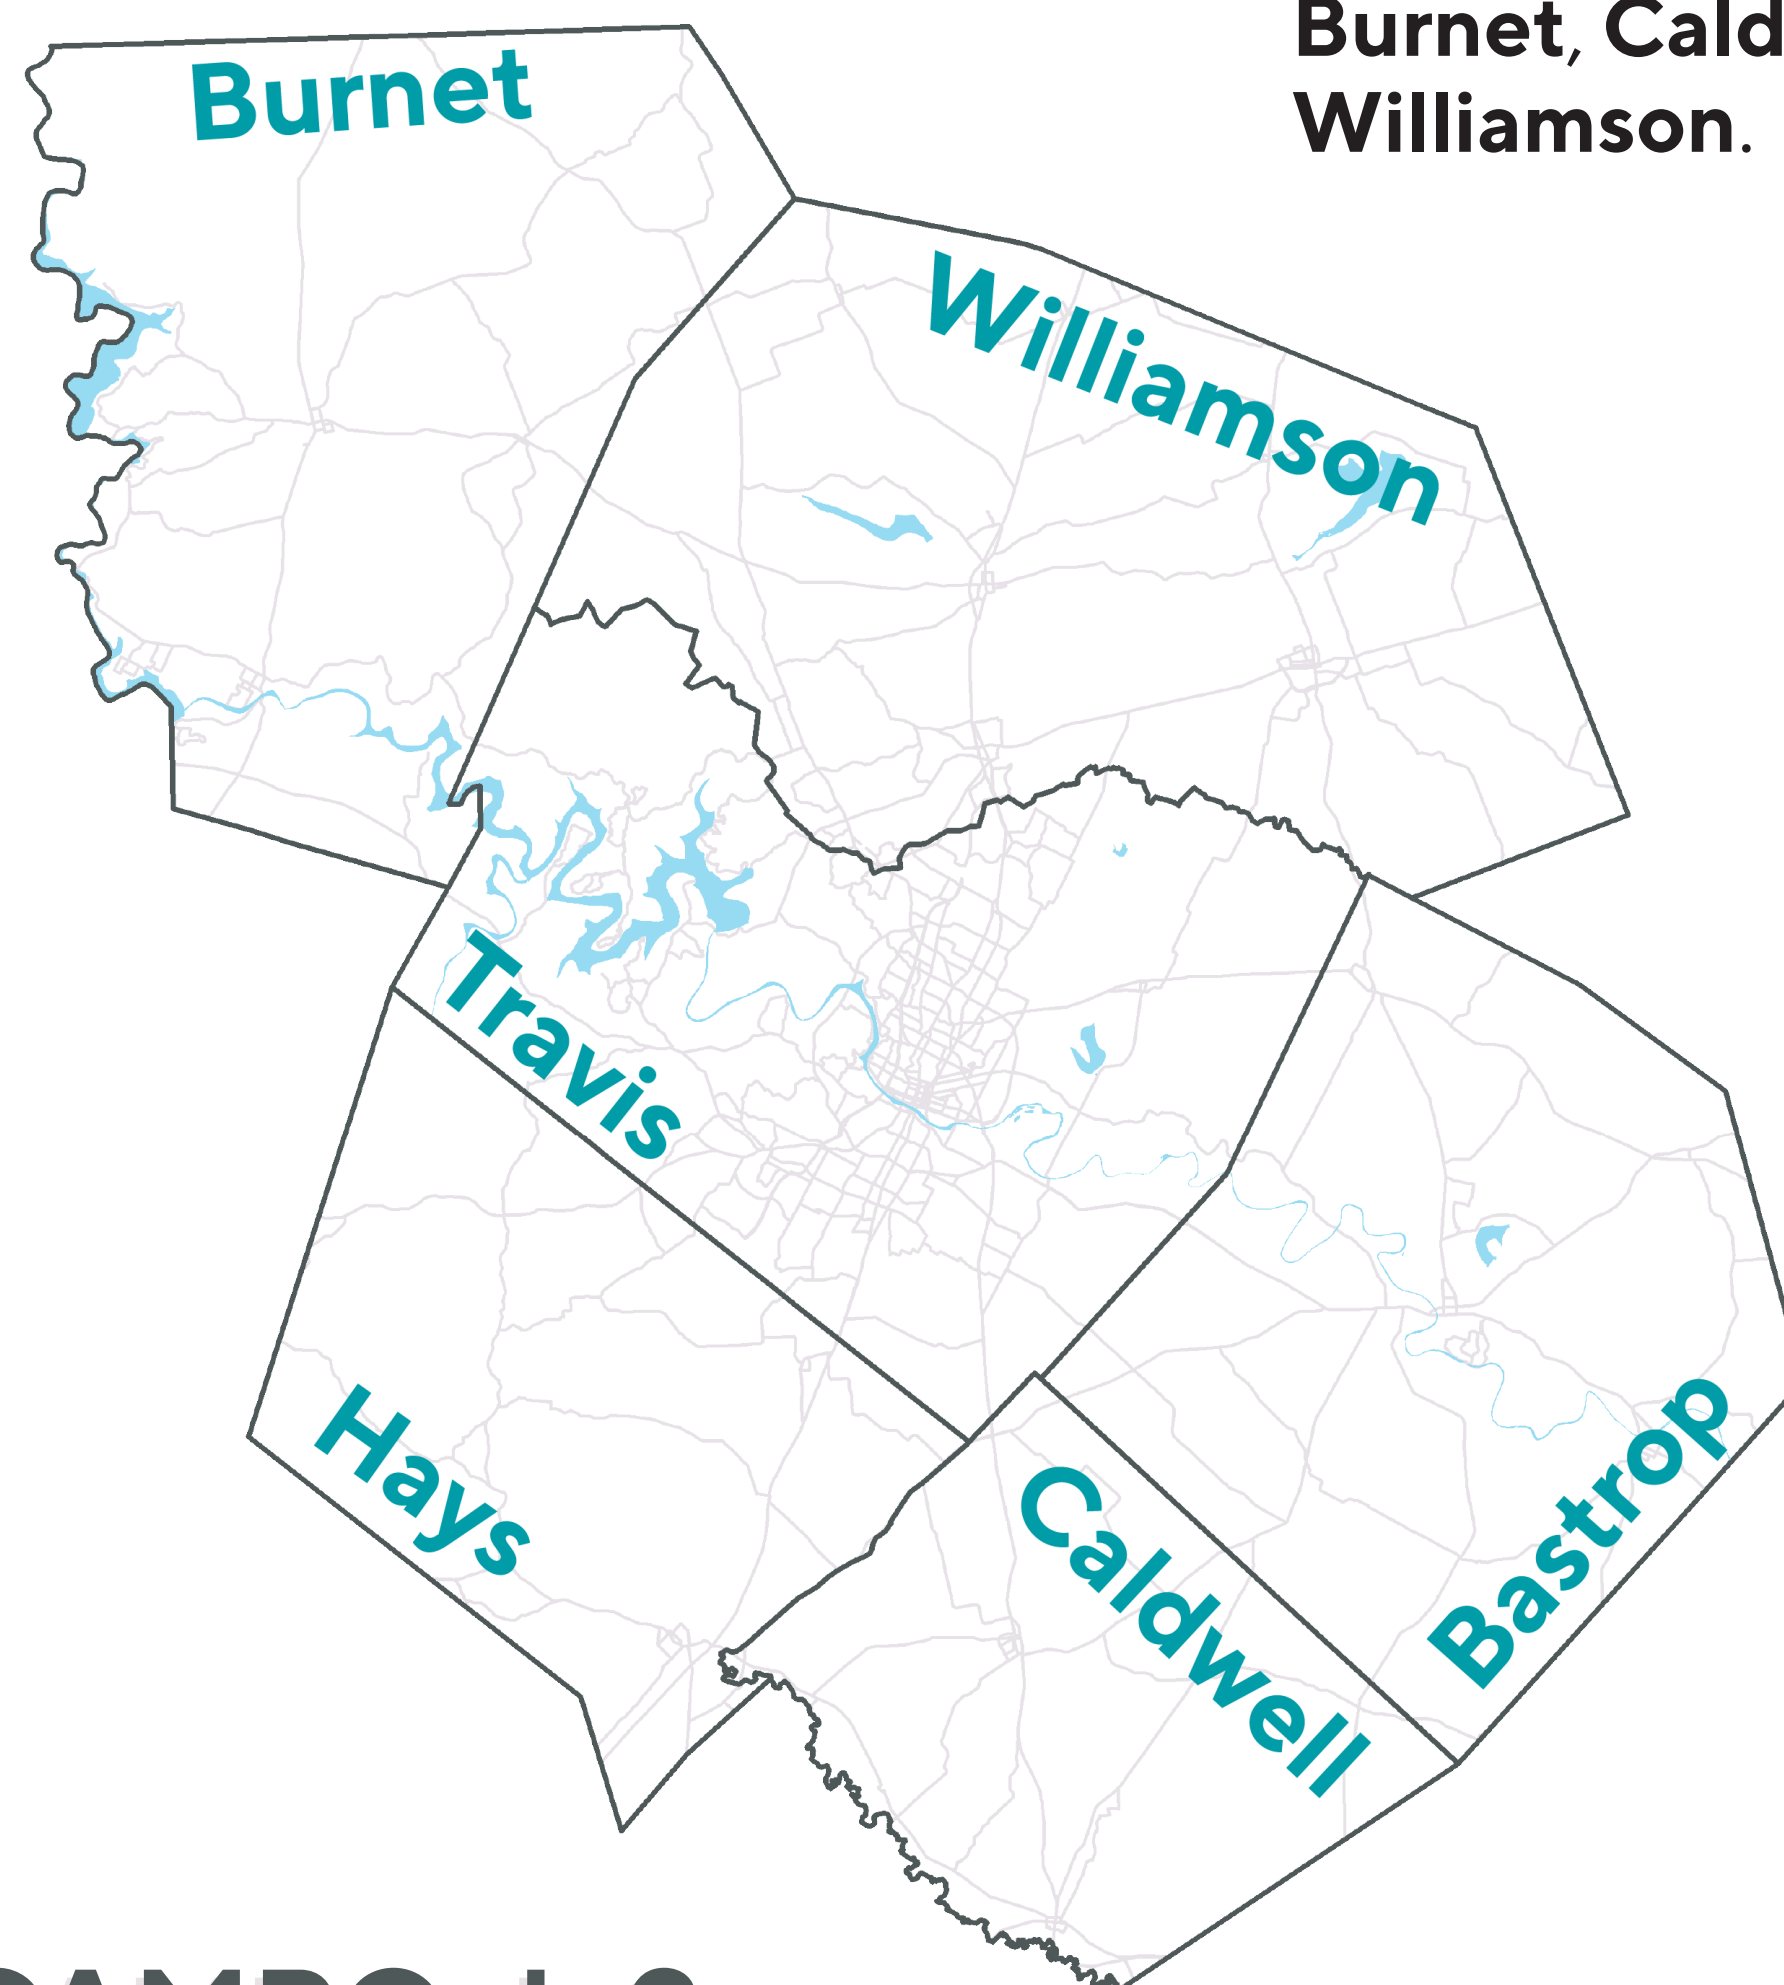

The Capital Area Metropolitan Planning Organization (CAMPO) is the Austin region's transportation decision-making body, coordinating regional transportation planning between counties, local governments and transportation agencies. The organization is made up of a 21-member Transportation Policy Board (TPB) that makes decisions on CAMPO policy and allocates federal transportation funds for the region, a 24-member Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) that provides technical expertise and recommendations to inform the Transportation Policy Board, and the Executive Director, who reports to the TPB and oversees the CAMPO staff.

What is an MPO?

MPO stands for metropolitan planning organization, which is regional transportation planning entity designated by the federal government. MPOs were introduced by the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1962, which requires the formation of an MPO for any urbanized area with a population greater than 50,000. CAMPO is one of 25 MPOs in Texas, and one of 408 in the United States.

Where is CAMPO?

CAMPO conducts regional transportation planning work within six counties: Bastrop, Burnet, Caldwell, Hays, Travis, and Williamson.

What does CAMPO do?

CAMPO closely coordinates with local governments and transportation agencies, such as TxDOT, Capital Metro and CARTS, in planning for regional transportation improvements. This includes working directly with local governments on technical studies related to transportation and economic development. However, CAMPO does not construct projects – that responsibility lies with project sponsors, such as cities, counties, and transportation agencies.

CAMPO is responsible for creating two primary regional planning documents– one long-range and one short-range:

- > the Regional Transportation Plan (RTP) is a 20+ year plan, which is adopted every five years, and;
- > the Transportation Improvement Program (TIP), which is adopted every two years but covers a four-year window.
